

5x

More Construction Workers will die by suicide than on a job site.*

SUICIDE PREVENTION IN CONSTRUCTION WORKSHOP

SEPTEMBER 21ST

ELECTRICAL INDUSTRY BUILDING BANQUET FACILITY

You are invited to this FREE EVENT plus EARN CE's.
Space is Limited. RSVP 419-327-2219

Questions: 2Tuff2Talk.Com

7:15a Breakfast & Registration. Workshop: 8a to 10:30a.

Cal Beyer, CWP, SCTPP is Vice President of Workforce Risk and Worker Wellbeing for CSDZ, a Holmes Murphy Company. He has over 30 years in risk management. Cal was instrumental in the launch of the Construction Industry Alliance for Suicide Prevention.

Pam Hepburn, CFO of OCP Contractors and CFMA National Chairman (2021-2022)

Panel of Experts with local impact stories.

Local Mental Health Experts as well as EAPs will be there too to answer questions!

*According to OSHA, 1,061 workers died in 2019 due to work-related injuries. According to CIASP, there are approximately 5,500 suicides among construction workers per year. Source: "Having the Conversation: Mental Health in Construction with Cal Beyer" BR.IQ Blog 11/25/2020

